When disaster, crisis or even the cycle of poverty hits, women are amongst the most affected. Over the last 10 years, the plight of women, lone widows and orphaned girls has made helping women a priority. The Zahra Trust, this year, has ensured it reaches as many vulnerable and marginalized women in 6 countries.

Your Impact

Orphans & Widows

5,410

Orphans and Widows Supported

Across the world, millions of families have been torn apart by the death of loved ones. All too often, orphans and widows are left to fend for themselves, becoming vulnerable and in desperate need of support. Through your support the Zahra Trust has been able to provide food, water, shelter and education to widows and orphans across the world

In the wake of a disaster, families are severely affected. From losing loved ones, livelihoods and shelters. The Zahra Trust focuses on rebuilding lives, including rebuilding and making immediate repairs to damaged homes across the world.

Shelter in Afghanistan

On May 12, gunmen attacked a maternity ward in a hospital in Kabul, Afghanistan killing 24 women, children and babies.

With your support we constructed 5 houses for the victims of bombing.

Wells in Pakistan

In Pakistan, The Zahra Trust has been increasing access to clean water. With tough landscapes, arid deserts to remote mountain ranges, combined with unsettled politics, it makes reaching the poorest people difficult.

Rebuilding Lives

Our immediate humanitarian response to the tragic blast, focused on the most vulnerable in the community through two major areas:

- 1) Meeting immediate needs with food packs.
- 2) Rebuilding homes with emergency housing repairs.
